

Dean of Workforce and Professional Development
(Formerly Dean of Corporate and Community Services)

Reporting to the College President and serving as a member of the Executive Cabinet, the Dean serves as the institution's chief workforce development officer and is responsible for providing leadership for all aspects of the College's workforce and continuing education program. In addition, the Dean will join the President and the other deans in community relations activities. The Dean is assisted by a digital badging coordinator, a curriculum designer, a corporate training coordinator and an events coordinator.

The successful candidate will have all or most of the following qualifications

Master's Degree

Experience in higher education administration preferably in a community college setting

Proven leadership, organizational and communication skills

Successful grant writing and administration

Commitment to the community college mission

The position is available immediately. Although the position will remain open until filled, candidates desiring full consideration should submit a resume and letter of application addressing the qualifications set forth above by July 3, 2018 to:

Dean of Human Resources and Chief of Staff to the President
Central Maine Community College
1250 Turner Street
Auburn, ME 04210
Or bowen@cmcc.edu

Central Maine Community College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution and employer. For more information, please call (207) 755-5233.