Legislative Authority

Established by the Legislature to provide Associate Degree and Certificate programs directed at the educational, occupational and technical needs of the State's citizens and the workforce needs of the State's employers, Central Maine Community College is one of seven colleges in Maine's Community College System. Others are located in Bangor, Calais, Fairfield, Presque Isle, South Portland, and Wells.

Governance

The Maine Community College System is governed by a Board of Trustees appointed by the Governor. Policies and decisions of the Board are implemented through the President of the System, who has an office in Augusta and serves as the System's chief executive officer. The President of the College serves as the chief executive officer and official spokesperson for the College.

Mission
Central Maine Community College provides quality, accessible college education and lifelong learning opportunities by offering career and technical education; education for transfer to baccalaureate programs; and services to support economic development and community vitality.

Accreditation

Central Maine Community College is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc, a nongovernmental, nationally recognized organization which certifies public and private colleges and universities throughout New England that meet its standards.

President: Dr. Betsy Libby

CM Education Foundation & Executive Advisory Council

The Central Maine Community College Foundation, or CM Education Foundation as it is known, is a community-based, non-profit corporation that has as its sole mission "support for Central Maine Community College and its students." The Foundation is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors made up of community and business leaders.

The Foundation Board of Directors also serves as the Executive Advisory Council, providing a forum for matters that have a broad impact on the College. Specific responsibilities of the Council include reviewing proposals for major changes in policies and programs, participating in the development of long range plans, and assisting with the interpretation of College goals, programs and needs to the general public.

Location

Located in Auburn at 1250 Turner Street just two miles from the center of the city, the campus of Central Maine Community College occupies a 135-acre site overlooking and bordering Lake Auburn. As Maine's second largest urban center, the cities of Auburn and Lewiston are located in the south central region of Maine, midway on the Maine Turnpike between Maine's capital, Augusta and its largest city, Portland – approximately 35 miles from each city.

Off-Campus Locations

In addition to the main campus in Auburn, (Androscoggin County) Central Maine Community College also serves Franklin, Lincoln, and Oxford Counties. In Oxford County, the College offers courses at Oxford Hills Comprehensive High School in South Paris. In Lincoln County, CMCC offers courses at the CMCC/Lincoln County Healthcare Education Center in Damariscotta. In a partnership with Lincoln County Healthcare, the CMCC Nursing Program is also delivered in Damariscotta. Working with the Franklin County Community College Network, CMCC offers courses and access to student services at Mt. Blue High School in Farmington.
