STUDENT SENATE

Represent your fellow students and take on a leadership role by running for Student Senate!

Students can run for President, Vice President, Treasurer, or Secretary. To nominate yourself, email a short bio, your goals as an officer, and why students should vote for you to iboll@mainecc.edu by Friday, September 4. Elections will be held the following week!

What does Student Senate do?

- Approves new student clubs and organizations
- Helps decide how to spend the Student Senate budget on meaningful activities and events
- Represents and advocates for students
- Gives the President and Vice President a seat at the College's Senior Leadership Meetings
